Dear Taylor-Scott Amarel:

This is a final response to your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request dated May 20, 2019 that we received on May 24, 2019.

Your request was a revision of request F19114-0056. In F19114-0056, you asked for all emails sent to, from or copied to Linda.J.McCarty@irs.gov, from January 1, 2015, to present containing any of the following non-case sensitive keywords: "money laundering", "whistleblower", or "fraud".

You revised F19114-0056, to ignore personal information of 3rd parties, and ignore records considered newsletters, spam, or junk mail and limited the time to 1/1/16 to 6/1/16.

Unfortunately, we are still unable to process your request as it does not meet the requirements of the FOIA or Internal Revenue Code (IRC) § 6103. Your request would still require proper authorization prior to conducting or accessing these records.

The FOIA requires that requests (1) "reasonably describe" the records sought and (2) be made in accordance with published agency rules (5 U.S.C § 552(a)(3)(A)). IRS regulations at Treas. Reg. § 601.702(c)(5)(i), require that the request describe the documents in sufficient detail to enable us to locate the records "without placing an unreasonable burden upon the IRS."

Moreover, the scope of your request appears to extend to documents, to the extent that any exist, may consist of, or contain the return information of a third party. Please be advised that such records, to the extent that they exist, would be confidential and may not be disclosed unless specifically authorized by law.

IRC § 6103 prohibits the release of returns and return information unless disclosure is authorized by Title 26. The Service's FOIA regulations specify that, in order to be processed, all requests that involve the disclosure of records that may be limited by statute or regulation, including requests for documents that are protected by IRC §

6103, must establish the right of the person making the request to the disclosure of the records in question. See 26 C.F.R. § 601.702(c)(4)(i)(E).

Specifically, when a person is requesting records pertaining to other persons or businesses, "the requester shall furnish a properly executed power of attorney, Privacy Act consent, or tax information authorization, as appropriate." See 26 C.F.R. § 601.702(c)(5)(iii)(C). Without such authorization, the request is incomplete and cannot be processed. See 26 C.F.R. § 601.702(c)(4). Only fully compliant requests can be processed.

We encourage you to consider revising your request to comply with the requirements detailed above. Please send us the indicated information within 35 days, along with a copy of this letter and your original request with the information requested. Otherwise, we will be forced to close your request without further action. The 20 days we are allowed to comply with your request will begin when we receive the requested information.

If you would like to discuss your request, you may contact me, the FOIA Public Liaison, Phillip Hatcher at:
